“ Johnny was a man who was loved by all who met him. He was a loving, kind, honorable man in a sometimes ugly world and exuded positive energy wherever he travelled.

“ I met John one time. We taught classes at the same location in the Kansas City area. He was one of those rare people that you meet once and consider a friend for life. We stayed in touch on Facebook, but now he is one of those people that make me wish I had stayed closer. Even after that one meeting, I will miss him greatly.

Goodbye dear friend.

“ Working with John at AICPA for the past 20 years or so has been an absolute joy. He was such a genuine and caring man. Wherever we would send John to teach classes, our clients would always rave about how nice he was and they always wanted him back to teach more. We definitely lost one of our best. RIP my friend!

“ I worked with John for approximately 20 years at the AICPA. I remember John as one of the nicest persons to ever work with. He was always kind, upbeat, and found the good in every situation. He loved his work and loved traveling to all the states and teaching and meeting people. Every time I emailed him about teaching an event, he'd say YES and then thank me for the work. He was always grateful to share his knowledge and passion about the CPA profession. We will miss him greatly.
